Saloon and lounge cars

The heart of the train is its four saloon cars, built between 1928 and 1930 and carefully restored. They serve as dining rooms by day, a bar that opens early and stays open late, and a piano car where live music sets the mood.

Evenings are lively: live performances, parties in the pub car and dancing, and the journey closes with a farewell gala meal. A comfortable coach travels alongside the train for the daily excursions, and a multilingual guide accompanies you throughout.

Dining on board and ashore

Every breakfast is served on board. Lunches and dinners alternate between the train's restaurant cars, where the onboard chefs cook, and leading restaurants along the route, giving you a taste of each region you pass through.

Wine, water, soft drinks and coffee are included with meals, and entrance fees for the scheduled visits are part of the journey.
